

Board-level representation in France: experience and future extension

European seminar organised by IRES and funded by the EWPCC at the ETUI

Thursday, 14 March 2013, 9:30 – 17:00

Venue: IRES

16 Bd. du Mont d'Est

93192 Noisy-le-Grand (France)

Programme

9:30 Arrival and coffee

9:45 Presentation: Frédéric Lerais (IRES) / Aline Hoffmann (EWPCC/ETUI)

The evolution of the French system of board-level participation

Chair: Aline Hoffmann

- The history of employee board level representation: Udo Rehfeldt (IRES)
- The French system compared: Aline Conchon (ETUI)

Debate

- The project of extension to the big private companies: NN (Ministry of Labour) tbc

General debate

12:30 lunch

14:00 Board-level participation in practice: some experiences

Chair: Udo Rehfeldt

- Nasser Mansouri (coordinator Groupe des administrateurs CGT)
- Alain Champigneux (employee BL representative Renault, coordinator Cercle des administrateurs CFE-CGC)
- Marie-Noëlle Auberger (La Gestion attentive, coordinator study CFDT-Cadres)
- Jean Coroller (Institut Français des Administrateurs)
- Serge Gentili (employee BL representative Aéroports de Paris, CGT-FO)

General debate

Conclusion: Aline Hoffmann

End: 17:00

The ETUI is financially supported by an operating grant from the European Union